PREHEARING CONFERENCE ORDER

I.

Introduction

On November 29, 2004, a prehearing conference was held at the commission, in accordance with Hawaii Administrative Rules (HAR) § 6-61-36. An evidentiary hearing is scheduled for December 8, 9, and 10, 2004. This prehearing conference order is entered pursuant to HAR § 6-61-37.

II.

Hearing Format

The hearing is scheduled for three (3) days, December 8, 9, and 10, 2004. It will be conducted in a panel format, such that the commission will establish panels of witnesses based generally on the questions originally asked by the commission in Prehearing Order No. 20922, filed on April 23, 2004. Each panel will consist of the witnesses assigned by each party or participant to sit on that panel as panel members. A party or participant may have multiple witnesses for each panel. To initiate each panel, a moderator as designated by the commission, will give a short overview of the panel's topics. Each panel's discussion then will be divided into two (2) parts.

The first part will consist of the commission's questions to the panel members. These questions will have been prepared by the commission staff in advance, and will be asked by the moderator. Follow-up questions may be asked by either the staff or commissioners, if deemed necessary. There will be questions asked of all panel members and questions directed to particular panel members.

In the second part, lawyers or representatives for each party or participant may cross-examine one or more panel members. Thereafter, if there is time remaining, the commission may have more questions, or individual panel members may ask each other questions, subject to the presiding officer's discretion.

On December 10, 2004, the last day of the hearings, when all the panels are complete, each party or participant will have the opportunity to present closing comments of approximately ten (10) minutes each. The commission will hear closing comments, but will not hear opening comments, as opening comments will likely repeat the submissions made by the parties and participants. The person offering the closing comments can be either the lawyer, witness or authorized representative of each party and participant.

Parties and participants may include additional comments in post-hearing written submissions. The deadlines for these post-hearing written submissions are set forth in the schedule for post-hearing briefs provided in Prehearing Order No. 20922.

III.

Orders

THE COMMISSION ORDERS:

1. The hearing format is modified to a panel format, as described above.

2. Prehearing Order No. 20922, Attachment 1, page 16, Section VIII, is amended by deleting paragraph 2, and as may be required to be consistent with the modified format, as described above.

3. The parties and participants shall notify commission counsel, Kevin M. Katsura, on which witnesses will be assigned for each panel by December 1, 2004.

4. The parties and participants shall meet informally to agree to an order of cross-examination. The parties and participants shall notify commission counsel, Kevin M. Katsura, on the agreed order of cross-examination by December 1, 2004. If the parties and participants are unable to reach an agreement, the commission will determine the order of cross-examination.

5. The commission will distribute to the parties and participants an agenda for the hearings by December 3, 2004, and the parties and participants shall submit any request for changes by December 6, 2004.

6. The hearings will begin at 8:30 a.m. each day. In all other respects, the Notice of Evidentiary Hearing, issued on September 17, 2004, remains unchanged.

7. This prehearing conference order shall control the subsequent course of the hearings, unless modified by the commission during the hearings to prevent manifest injustice. This prehearing conference order shall supersede Prehearing Order No. 20922 where there is a conflict and shall supplement it in all other respects.
